

1.95
P96
Apr. 1, 1942

Reserve

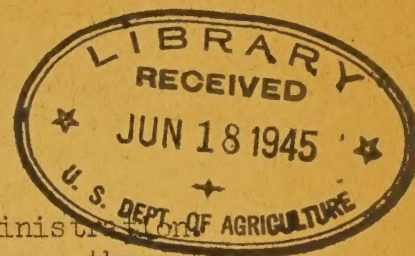

FARM SECURITY ADMINISTRATION
List of Available Publications

April 1, 1942

The following is a list of publications which are available, free of charge, from the Division of Information, Farm Security Administration, Washington, D. C. (except where stated otherwise):

General Information

1. Farm Security - The Work of the Farm Security Administration.
A brief summary of services available to farmers through the Farm Security Administration.
2. Farm Security Administration.
A description of all phases of the Farm Security Administration program. (Copies may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., for fifteen cents each.)
3. History of the Farm Security Administration.
Description of functional development of the Farm Security Administration.
4. Report of the Administrator of the Farm Security Administration.
(Copies may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., for five cents each.)
55. Rural Housing by the Farm Security Administration.
Description of housing activities of the Farm Security Administration giving a statement on developments that have resulted from five years' experience in rural housing.
104. Plain Facts About Negro Farming.
Article by Constance E. H. Daniel which appeared in "The Brown American," November, 1941. Describes special problems of Negro farmers and the help Farm Security Administration is giving them.

Rural Rehabilitation

8. Facts About Rehabilitation Loans of the FSA.
An explanation of the Rural Rehabilitation Program of the Farm Security Administration.
9. Helping the Farmer Adjust His Debts.
An explanation of the Farm Debt Adjustment Program of the Farm Security Administration.

46. Southeast Missouri: A Laboratory for the Cotton South.
Farm Security Administration's five-point program for Southeast Missouri.
101. North Carolina Mountain Laboratory Proves Preventatives for Human Erosion.
Article by Fred Cohn which appeared in the September 14, 1941, Raleigh, North Carolina, The News and Observer. Describes rehabilitation of mountain families through cooperative efforts of Work Projects Administration, the State Department of Public Welfare, and the Farm Security Administration.
109. FSA Victory Gardens
How the Farm Security Administration is aiding small farmers and other rural people to grow Victory gardens.
110. Strength for Defense -- One Job of the Farm Security Administration.
Describes how Farm Security Administration Home Management Supervisors help borrowers build up their strength through better nutrition.
113. Adult Education in the FSA Program.
An article by George H. Reuss reproduced from Illinois Adult Education Notes, Volume II, No. 2, describing how the Farm Security Administration is teaching low-income farmers to help themselves through personal supervision and group education.

Cooperatives

17. Good Neighbor.
An explanation of the Community Services Program of the Farm Security Administration.
18. Co-ops for the Small Farmer.
An explanation of cooperatives in agriculture and the use Farm Security Administration borrowers are making of them.
92. Buying and Selling the Co-op Way.
How Farm Security Administration borrowers organize and use county purchasing and marketing associations with examples of cash savings and benefits achieved through these groups.

93. Community and Cooperative Service Loans.
An over-all statement of Farm Security group service loans, purposes for which these loans are made, eligibility and security requirements, interest rates, repayment of loans, and other factors.
100. The Small Farmer Finds His Own Leaders.
The story of a Negro study group in Saluda County, South Carolina.
106. Sharing Farm Equipment.
Explains how neighboring farmers share the cost and upkeep of farm machinery and practices which have been found conducive to successful group operations of machinery.
108. How Neighborhoods and Communities Aid Farm Security Administration Group Programs
Explains the need and a method of finding natural groupings of rural people before organizing neighborhood study groups, simple service cooperatives and other rural service groups.

Tenant Purchase Loans

23. Farm Tenant Loans.
A brief explanation of the Tenant-Purchase program of the Farm Security Administration.
24. Security for Farm Tenants
A description of the Tenant-Purchase program, with summary of what has been accomplished since the passage of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act.
25. Explanation of the Variable Payment Plan for Repaying Tenant Purchase Loans.
27. Designated Counties for Tenant Purchase loans.

Homestead Project Summaries

36. Beltrami Island Farms.
Scattered farms located largely in the 4 counties of Beltrami, Lake of the Woods, Roscau, and Koochiching, Minnesota.
Established to resettle families from submarginal land in the northern part of the State.
39. Flint River Farms, Georgia - Located in Macon County.
Established to give Negroes in this area a new start on the land. Demonstrates new ways for sharecroppers and tenant farmers to make a better living.

40. Gee's Bend.
Located in Wilcox County in Southern Alabama. Consists of individual farm units that once formed a large plantation. Families on projects are Negroes.
41. Granger Homesteads, Iowa.
Subsistence homesteads located in Dallas County, the coal mining area of Central Iowa. Established to supplement the seasonal income of the miners by part-time farming.
42. Greene County, Georgia.
An example of county planning.
43. Irwinville Farms
Consists of individual farm units. Summary describes rehabilitation of families in Irwin County, Georgia, and shows gain in net worth of project families.
44. Jersey Homesteads.
Subsistence homesteads in Monmouth County near Hightstown, New Jersey. Established to provide homes, gardens, and a means of livelihood for the families of needle workers.
45. La Forge Farms.
Located in Madrid County, the bootheel of Southeastern Missouri. Project designed to show how income and general living conditions of tenant families can be improved.
47. Longview Homesteads.
Subsistence homesteads at Cowlitz County, Longview, Washington, established for low-income industrial families who are employed in nearby lumber mills.
48. Milk River Farms - Located in Blaine, Phillips & Valley Counties. Reprint from Soil Conservation by H. L. Lantz on readjustment of population to land resources in Northern Montana.
50. Skyline Farms.
Subsistence homesteads located at Jackson County, Alabama. Describes the various means by which families formerly on or near relief are being helped toward independence.
51. Kinsey Farms, Inc., Montana - Located in Custer County.
Shows that former dry land farmers can make a good living on developed, irrigable land which has been largely unproductive over a period of years.
52. From the Lower Depths.
Reprint from Reader's Digest, May, 1941, on the La Forge Project, describing living conditions of the occupants of New Madrid County before and after the La Forge Project was established.

96. El Monte Homesteads and San Fernando Homesteads - California.
Subsistence homesteads established for low-income urban workers to provide ample space for subsistence gardens, modern housing and more satisfactory living conditions.
102. Pine Mountain Valley, Georgia.
Diversified planning and cooperative enterprises are being used to improve living conditions in the Pine Mountain Valley area.

Greenbelt Towns

53. Greenbelt Communities.
A description and outline of plans of operation for the three suburban low-rent communities constructed by the Farm Security Administration.
99. Consumers and the Greenbelt Cooperative.
Describes in detail the results of a survey made by Victor W. Bennett of the University of Maryland on the Cooperative stores and services at Greenbelt, Maryland.

Seasonal Farm Labor

60. Migrant Farm Labor: The Problem and Some Efforts to Meet It.
107. Migrant Labor Camps.
List of Farm Security Administration camps including name, location and capacity, as of January 1, 1942.
69. Farm Migrants in New Jersey.
By Samuel Liss, Reprinted from Land Policy Review, June, 1941. Article giving review of the migratory labor situation in two agriculture areas of New Jersey.
97. The Farm Labor Problem: After Defense, What?
Article by Richard L. Strout on a visit to the Tulare Migratory Labor Camp, Visalia, California, which appeared in the August 21, 1941, issue of Christian Science Monitor.
114. National Defense and Farm Migrants.
An article by Brooks Hays which appeared in The Kiwanis Magazine describing the migrant problem and how the Farm Security Administration is meeting it through the establishment of migratory labor camps and mobile camps.

Medical Care

75. Group Medical Care For Farmers.

115. A Nation Is No Stronger Than Its People.

A broadcast on the Farm Security Administration medical care program which was presented on the National Farm and Home Hour over the Blue Network with Surgeon-General Thomas Parran of the U. S. Public Health Service, Dr. R. C. Williams, Chief Medical Officer for the Farm Security Administration, and Mrs. Raleigh Hubbard, farm wife of Farmville, Virginia.

Background Material

81. Report of the President's Committee on Farm Tenancy.
Dated February, 1937.

85. The Cooperative Movement in Nova Scotia.
Condensed from a series of articles written by Cortez A. M. Ewing, member of the University of Oklahoma Faculty which appeared in The Daily Oklahoman.

86. Articles on Irish Tenancy.
By John Caufield, Reprints of articles appearing in the Progressive Farmer.

88. The Future of the Farm.
Article by Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture,
Reprint from February 3, 1941, issue of the New Republic on advance of technology in agriculture and what can be done about undesirable effects of the industrial revolution on the farm.